

Which course is right for me?

Would you like to explore the Christian faith in a way that engages with the questions people are asking today?

Yes!

Around six weeks

How much time can you commit?

1 - 5 years

How would you prefer to learn?

Informally with others in my church/ local setting

More formally alongside students working towards a qualification

Why not get together with others in your church or local area to explore using the Pilgrim course? Lindisfarne can assist in the setting up of study groups.

Join Theology, Ministry & Mission students as an Auditor for a single module and study simply for interest, engaging with preparation for module sessions but with no assignments.

9 months

What are you hoping to explore?

My faith in a way that helps to deepen my discipleship and relate the Bible to everyday life

I can't decide!

The wider story of: Jesus, Church, Christian discipleship and mission through the ages and their meaning for today

Would you like to work for a qualification that requires the completion of academic assignments?

Yes

No

The Durham University Certificate, Diploma or BA in Theology, Ministry & Mission may be for you. Study on our independent student pathway.

Join Theology, Ministry & Mission students as an Auditor and study simply for interest, engaging with preparation for module sessions but with no assignments.

Would you mind a little written work and can you commit a couple of hours per week to study outside of session?

No

Yes

Faith & Life could be for you. Meet with others in your local area week by week and join with other groups from around the region for two Away Days during the course.

Why not consider Living Theology North East? Study at either Durham or in the Hexham area on a weekly basis and take part in a joint residential weekend.